ECF Case

DECLARATION OF
PATRICIA SACHS CATAPANO

PATRICIA SACHS CATAPANO states:

1. I am Associate General Counsel of Columbia University (“Columbia” or the “University”). I submit this declaration, which is based on my personal knowledge, in connection with the University’s motion to dismiss the complaint.

2. The University, formally known as The Trustees of Columbia University in the City of New York, was established by the New York legislature as a private, non-profit, educational corporation.

3. The principal units of the of the University are its faculties, which are commonly referred to as schools, such as the School of Continuing Education, Columbia College, the School of Law, the Graduate School of Business, the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and several others.

4. The faculties do not have an independent corporate existence. They are simply operating units of the University itself.

5. The University has established several hundred institutes, centers and other interdepartmental research and teaching programs. Among these are the Institute for Research on Women and Gender. These programs, as well, do not have an independent corporate existence.

6. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
